BRANDEIS NATIONAL COMMITTEE
BOCA RATON CHAPTER
SUMMER STUDY GUIDE
2015
Dear Members,

One year ago I took office as President of the Boca Raton Chapter of Brandeis National Committee. It has been a good year, challenging but also interesting and fun. All of our programs have been well attended and successful with many being sold-out. I’ve been fortunate in having a very hard working Board, dedicated to our organization.

Running a volunteer organization with over 1200 members requires the input, backing and support of quality board members. I want to thank my elected officers, Vice Presidents, Joan Schreiber, Membership, Micki Schnier, Public Image, Pat Knapp, Marcia London and Penny Elias, Study Groups and Music, Music, Carole Steinberg and Arlyne Sternburg, Special Events, Denie Kane, Recording Secretary, Ellie Mero, Corresponding Secretary, Julie Banner and Carol Benjamin, Treasurers, and Ellen Sade, Nominating Committee Chair. Serving as the Advisory Board, these women are cognizant of overall needs and have taken on additional responsibilities such as the Chapter website and email blasts, data processing, hospitality and facilitator coordination. They are the backbone of the chapter.

Other Chairman of very special note were, Helene Barasch, Book and Author, Harriet Shapiro, Sustaining The Mind, Molly Seiden, Book Store, Anne Nathanson and Arleen Roberts, Community Service, and so many others that served as members of committees, facilitators and registrars, and super event recruiters all of whom keep the chapter running.

Lastly, I thank you, our members who supported our activities providing overall support to Brandeis University, our academically talented students, renowned faculty, and Sustaining The Mind: Scholarships for Science Students Campaign.

If you would like to be involved on committees or on the Board we welcome your participation. New board members keep the chapter fresh and exciting. Review our board list on page 2 of this bulletin and call or email me or any of our officers. We will surely respond.

I look forward to a rewarding year ahead.

Ruth

Summer Study Group Guide

1. 1600 PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE

Leader: Robert Watson    One Session: Tuesday - June 2 • 7:00 pm
Venue: Phoenix at Delray * * formerly Delray Grande  Members Fee: $10  Guests: $15 per session

June 2: Reforming the Congress- What needs to be done? Can it be done?

As is his custom, Dr. Watson will preface his scheduled lecture with remarks and observations on current newsworthy events. There will be adequate time for questions and answers after the lecture.

Robert Watson is a professor, author, media commentator and community activist who joined the faculty of Lynn University in 2007. He has published 36 books and hundreds of scholarly articles, book chapters, encyclopedia essays and newspaper columns. Dr. Watson has co-convened a half-dozen national conferences on the American Presidency as well as moderated political debates and forums on current issues. His work in the community includes founding and directing Think Act Lead, a non-profit think tank established as a free community service dedicated to civic education and political reform.

A frequent media commentator, Dr. Watson has been interviewed by local, national and international television, radio, print and online outlets including CNN, MSNBC, “Time,” “USA Today,” “The New York Times,” the BBC and others. He has appeared on C-SPAN’s “Book TV,” “Hardball with Chris Matthews,” “The Daily Show with Jon Stewart,” CNN’s “Inside Politics with Judy Woodruff,” Fox’s “Special Report with Brit Hume”. Dr. Watson serves as the official political analyst for WPTV Channel 5 (NBC).

2. JEWISH CONFRONTATION WITH MODERNITY

Leader: Eli Kavon    Three sessions: Thursdays - June 18, July 16, Aug 13 • 1:30 pm
Venue: Phoenix at Delray * * formerly Delray Grande  Fee: $10 per session in advance - $15 at door

June 18 - Holocaust Survivors in Israel: The Impact of the Eichmann Trial - Rabbi Eli Kavon will recount the traumatic encounter between those Jews who survived the Shoah and Jews who made aliya to Israel before the horrific events of 1939-1945. It took the Eichmann Trial to give Israel a true picture of what the survivors endured and make all Israelis aware that the Jews in Europe did not go like “lambs to the slaughter” to their deaths.

July 16 - Jew versus Jew In Israel: An Update - In this provocative lecture, Rabbi Eli Kavon will provide an update on the state of Jews in Israel and their relationships with each other, often fraught with tension. What is the future of secular Zionism in Israel? What of the ultra-Orthodox subculture and its impact on the Jewish State. Rabbi Kavon will also discuss possible solutions to the issues that divide Israelis.

August 13 - The Explosion of Anti-Semitism - We all believed that the Holocaust would mean an end to the legitimacy of anti-Semitism. But, in fact, anti-Semitism is alive and well on campuses worldwide, on the streets of Europe, and in the Islamic world. Rabbi Kavon will explore this issue in depth and tackle it.

Rabbi Eli Kavon is a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Columbia University, where he studied Comparative Religion and History. He received his Master’s Degree in Jewish Studies from the Spertus Institute in Chicago and was ordained as Rabbi by the Rabbinical Academy of Woodmere, NY. Rabbi’s essays have appeared in the Jerusalem Post and the Jerusalem Report. He is a regular contributor to the Zionist journal Midstream. In June 2011, Rabbi Kavon presented an academic paper in China at an international symposium on Western Religion hosted by Nanjing University.

3. ARAB WORLD IN CRISIS

Leader: Robert Rabil    Two Sessions: Wednesdays - June 10, Aug 12 • 1:30 pm
Venue: Phoenix at Delray * * formerly Delray Grande  Fee: $10 in advance per session - $15 at door

This two lecture series explores the current dynamics in the Middle East focusing on a) the U.S. led campaign against ISIS and its implications for U. S. and Israel’s national security and b) U. S. - Saudi-Iranian relations and their ramifications for the region in general and Israel in particular.
Dr. Robert Rabil is a tenured Professor of Middle Eastern Studies at FAU. He received his Ph.D in Near Eastern and Judaic Studies from Brandeis University. He has served as Chief of Emergency of the Red Cross in Lebanon and was Project Manager of the US State Department-funded Iraq Research and Documentation Project. He has written extensively on Syria, Iraq, US-Arab Relations, Israel, reform in the Arab World, radical Islam and terrorism.

4. NEVER UNDERESTIMATE THE POWER OF A WOMAN
Leader: Terryl Lawrence
Three Sessions: Tuesdays - June 30, July 7, July 28 • 1:30 pm
Venue: Phoenix at Delray *  formerly Delray Grande  Fee: $10 per session in advance - $15 at door

June 30: Women Sculptors - The path they cleared: Camille Claudel, Chana Orloff, Louise Nevelson and others.

July 7: Women Painters: “You paint like a man”: Elizabeth Vigee LeBrun, Berthe Morisot, Georgia O’Keeffe and others.

July 28: Women Photographers: A profession where women were equal to men from its inception: Julia Margaret Cameron, Berenice Abbott, Annie Liebovitz

Terryl Lawrence has a Ph.D from Columbia University. A painter and photographer, she continually exhibits her works and has won many awards...including a National Grant in the Humanities for research in Art History. Currently she is on the staff of LLS at FAU. She also is a Professor at the Digital Media Arts College Boca Raton, teaching drawing, art history and mythology.

5. OPEN BOOK
Leader: Gloria Shapiro
Three Sessions: Tuesdays - June 9, July 14, August 11 • 1:30 pm
Venue: Phoenix at Delray *  formerly Delray Grande  Fee: $10 per session in advance - $15 at door

June 9 - Elizabeth Taylor - Is there anything left to say about Elizabeth Taylor? You bet there is! In “Elizabeth”, Randy Taraborrelli gives us an intimate portrait of the celebrated movie queen. It’s all there-- the colorful lifestyle, the fabulous career, tempestuous marriages and the phenomenal jewels. But this is also a portrait of a woman who is honest, generous, caring — and extremely vulnerable. Among other perceptions, we’ll conclude it was never easy being Elizabeth Taylor.

July 14 - Barbra “Streisand”, by James Spada, is a fascinating account of Barbra Streisand, the entertainer whose phenomenal talent has kept her at the top of her game for over 50 years. We learn of her difficult early life, her loves, her fight to be accepted as she was and her dedication to the highest standard of excellence in her work. Colorful, opinionated often, difficult, she has earned her unchallenged position in the hierarchy of her profession.

August 11 - Charlie Chaplin - In “The Autobiography of Charlie Chaplin” we are introduced to a man where the word genius is not misplaced. His early life was one of unspeakable poverty and deprivation. Still, sheer comedic brilliance enabled him to rise from those roots to world-wide fame and fortune, — with more than a little notoriety in the tabloids along the way. Almost more than anyone else, he was responsible for the founding of an industry that we find indispensable in our lives today.

Gloria Shapiro has been informing and entertaining audiences for years. She is a graduate of Queens College majoring in Speech and Theater, with post graduate work at Columbia University. She was on the faculty of Rutgers University and is the author of two memoirs. Her distinctive style and delivery have made her a much sought after speaker in South Florida.

6. FABULOUS FIRST NOVELS
Leader: Joyce Reider
Three Sessions: Fridays - June 19, July 10, Aug 7 • 1:30 pm
Venue: South County Civic Center  Fee: $10 per session in advance - $15 at door

This year an amazing crop of first novels written by women appeared on the literary scene. Here is a chance to find and discuss a new star before your friends do. These books will have everyone talking:

June 19: “A Partial History of Lost Causes” by Jennifer Dubois
July 10: “Everything I Never Told You” by Celeste Ng

August 7: “Station Eleven” by Emily St. John Mandel

Joyce Reider has been leading study groups for many years she brings her national reputation and lively intellect into the classroom, ranging widely over the history, culture, literary merit of each work. So read, be stimulated and enjoy.

7. BOOKSHELF
Leader: Bilha Ron  Two Sessions: Fridays - July 17, August 14 • 1:30 pm
Venue: Phoenix at Delray * * formerly Delray Grande  Fee: $10 per session in advance  -   $15 at door

July 17 - BEN-GURION by Anita Shapiro (2015) Ben-Gurion, father of modern Israel, will be the topic of our discussion, following the dramatic moments of the establishment of the State of Israel. Bilha has been an eye witness to, and an active participant in, these events. We shall explore the roots of today’s fractured Israel as well as the future of Israel.

August 14 - MY PROMISED LAND - THE TRIUMPH AND TRAGEDY OF ISRAEL by Ari Shavit (2014) This highly acclaimed book is controversial and demands deep discussion. Both painful and inspiring, the book confronts many contemporary issues.

Bilha Ron was born in Israel and graduated from Levinski Teachers College in Tel-Aviv. A former member of the Hagganah, she served in the Israeli Army during the War of Independence. She taught in the public schools and in Israel’s language academy (Ulpan). In 1974 she graduated from Walsh University in N. Canton, Ohio with a Bachelor’s Degree in English literature. She has lectured extensively on Hebrew literature, biblical studies, politics of the Middle East and on the Holocaust.

8. OPERA: From A Cantor’s Point Of View
Leader: David Presler  One Session: Tuesday - June 16 • 1:30 pm
Venue: Phoenix at Delray * * formerly Delray Grande  Fee: $10 in advance  -   $15 at door

June 16: Cantor David Presler, Opera and Art Song Enthusiast presents Opera from a Cantor’s Perspective. Topics in this lecture include: How has Opera influenced the Art of the Cantor, The Great Cantors who chose to pursue Opera, the Training and Discipline of both crafts. Excerpts will be presented on Video, along with live examples of both Cantorial and Opera selections.

David earned a B.A. and M.S. in Music Education at Queens College, and continued his Doctoral studies at Yeshiva University in Jewish Education and Administration. He has served congregations as Cantor/Educator for the past 25 years. David Presler, Baritone has performed four great song cycles: Shubert’s Die Winterreise and Schumann’s Dichterliebe, as well as Don Quichotte by Ravel and Ibert. His operatic roles include Figaro in Le Nozze di Figaro, Shaunard in La Boheme, Escamillo in Carmen, and Leporello in Don Giovanni.

9. OPERA A LA MODE: Old Testament Operas
Leader: Giuseppe Albanese  Three Sessions: Mondays - June 22, July 20, August 17 • 1:30 pm
Venue: Phoenix at Delray * * formerly Delray Grande  Fee: $10 per session in advance  -   $15 at door

July 20: “Remember, O Lord, What has Befallen Us”- Lamentations 5: 1-Nabucco (1842) - G. Verdi: The Babylonian captivity of the Jews, first observed as a ballet by Verdi, was eventually set to one of the most exciting and propulsive scores in Italian opera. (A 2001 Metropolitan Opera production)

Aug 17: “Salome” (1906) R. Strauss: Herod lusts for his provocative step-daughter who then makes a shattering request.
Heralded by his students as a “dynamic and learned scholar of the opera” Giuseppe Albanese received his degree in history from the University of Vermont. In 1990, after 5 years of intensive study, he began teaching the Joy of Opera, a course that garnered accolades from Life Long Learning students at FAU. Maestro Albanese was the recipient of the Lifelong Excellence in Teaching Award in 2000.

10. DID THEY GET AWAY WITH MURDER?
Leader: Myrna Goldberger
Three Sessions: Tuesdays - June 23 • 2:30 pm
July 21, Aug 18 • 1:30 pm

Venue: Phoenix at Delray * * formerly Delray Grande  Fee: $10 in advance per session  -  $15 at door

June 23: The case of Harry Thaw and the girl in the red velvet swing; the Klaus Von Bulow case.

July 21: The case of Albert Tirrell; the case of Candace Mosley and Melvin Powers.

August 18: Lizzie Borden case; the case of Robert Blake.

Myrna Goldberger was educated at the University of Maryland, Loyola College and Johns Hopkins University. She has been an educator, lecturer, and performer for over 50 years. She is currently a lecturer for the Lifelong Learning Society at FAU, Boca Raton and Jupiter campuses. In addition, she presents programs to organizations, communities, special interest groups and private functions. Myrna is characterized as “dynamic, charismatic and well prepared” by her students.

11. MUSIC, MUSIC, MUSIC
Leader: Al Guastafeste
One Session: Saturday - July 11 • 4:00 pm

Venue: Steinway Piano Gallery

SNOWBIRD and ASSOCIATE MEMBER INFORMATION

Perhaps many of you are not aware that the Post Office does not forward bulk mail. This is the method we use to send out our Study Guide and Bulletins. For that reason, we ask you to update your address information when you leave Florida for the summer.

Please take a moment to fill out the coupon in this Bulletin or you may e-mail the information to Ellie Mero, 4ellie@comcast.net - we must have this information by August 1st to insure delivery to the proper address.

Associate members must renew their membership by August 1st to remain on the mailing list.

Canadian members please notify Joan Schreiber, 561-451-8498 or schreiberjoan@bellsouth.net to make arrangements for the fall Study Guide and Bulletin to be sent to Canada.

Last year a large number of our members did not give us their correct address information, and did not receive their fall information on time. This is frustrating to us as well as to you. Please cooperate by keeping us up to date.

COMMUNITY OUT REACH PROGRAM

‘WANT TO BECOME A COLLECTOR?’

WELCOME TO CAPS OF LOVE: HELPING THE DISABLED

The goal of our non-profit organization is to help the disabled. “Caps Of Love” is the only US affiliate with the international charity “Bouchons D’Amour”. By recycling plastic caps, we raise money to buy wheelchairs for disabled children. This also has an environmental benefit as discarded caps are put in our landfills or incinerated which harms the earth if not recycled. Plastic caps are a different grade of plastic from the bottles and are valuable in bulk. They can be sold to companies using recycled “post-consumer” plastic to create new products such as plastic shipping pallets, plastic park benches, plastic paint cans and many other items.

Nondiscrimination Policy

“Caps of Love” does not discriminate or support on the basis of race, religion, ethnicity, sexual orientation, socioeconomic status, national origin, or physical or developmental disability.

Have you ever thought about how much you could change things just by not throwing out your plastic caps?

OR

Collect soda tabs for Ronald McDonald House and help sick children and their families. The tabs are what make “Pop Tab Bracelets” these unusual, fun bracelets sell for $5.00 to $15.00 and make a real fashion statement! They are the brain child of a local teenager, Lexi Masciarella. For more information contact: Arleen Roberts at arlollypops@comcast.net

MISSION STATEMENT

Brandeis National Committee is dedicated to providing philanthropic support to Brandeis University, a distinguished liberal arts and research University founded by the American Jewish community. Its membership is connected to the University through fundraising and activities that reflect the values on which the University was founded: academic excellence, social justice, non-sectarianism and service to the community.
